Free Lunch & Lecture + Wednesday, February 7th + Noon + Yale Divinity School

PRAISE

With an Introduction by Miroslav Volf Founding Director of the Yale Center for Faith & Culture and Henry B. Wright Professor of Theology at Yale Divinity

Professor David Ford and the Rev. Canon Chris Russell are arguably better equipped to present our YMI lecture on “Praise: Being Transformed by Joy” than anybody else in the world. Their lecture will try to do some justice to what it means to live a life of joyful praise today, drawing on many sources and personal experiences, and facing some of the challenges to wholehearted praise that young people meet in our culture.

Dr. David F. Ford

Dr. Ford is Emeritus Regius Professor of Divinity in the University of Cambridge and the Founding Director of the Cambridge Inter-Faith Programme in the Centre for Advanced Religious and Theological Studies. He is world renowned for his seminal 1984 work on praise: Jubilate, Theology in Praise (with Daniel W. Hardy) which he revised and updated in 2005 as Living in Praise – Worshipping and Knowing God.

Rev. Canon Chris Russell

The Archbishop of Canterbury appointed the Rev. Canon Russell as his new advisor for Evangelism and Witness at Lambeth Palace in 2013. Among youth ministers, the Rev. Canon Russell is better know for his exceptionally creative and fruitful work with young people as Vicar of St. Laurence Church in Reading town centre and as a thought leader on ministry with and for youth in the Anglican Communion and worldwide.
