FALL 2018
LUNCH & LECTURE SERIES
Yale Divinity School

All lectures are free and open to the public. Lunch is served at noon and lectures begin at 12:30pm in the Old Refectory of Yale Divinity School.

RSVP

Please visit our website to RSVP: youthministryinstitute.yale.edu
If you have any questions, do not hesitate to contact our Communications Coordinator: madeleine.ranges@yale.edu.

All lectures are streamed on YouTube Live: youtube.com/YaleYouthMinistryInstitute and will be archived, along with interviews with guest lecturers on our YouTube channel.

WHY YOUTH MINISTRY?
NURTURING JOY IN AN UNCERTAIN AGE

Yale Youth Ministry Institute
Yale Center for Faith & Culture at Yale Divinity School

LUNCH & LECTURE SERIES
FALL 2018

COURSE SUMMARY
FALL 2018

OCTOBER 3rd
DR. FRANK ROGERS, REV.
DR. CHRISTOPHER CARTER,
& MR. SETH SCHOEN ON COMPASSION
Compassion-Based Approaches for Facilitating Difficult Conversations about Race and Racial Identity

NOVEMBER 7th
DR. DAVID ANDERSON HOOKER, DR. ITIHARE TOURE & DR. ELIZABETH CORRIE ON PEACE-MAKING & RECONCILIATION
Eight bowls, Four weeks, One RADICL World

DECEMBER 5th
DR. MIROSLAV VOLF AND MR. PAUL GORRELL ON FORGIVENESS
Intervention Specialist

For more information, please visit: youthministryinstitute.yale.edu

Yale Divinity School
409 Prospect Street
New Haven, CT 06511

Yale Youth Ministry Institute
Yale Center for Faith & Culture at Yale Divinity School

/ylaleyouthministry
/YaleYouthMinistryInstitute
@YMI_Yale
@YMI_Yale

Made possible with the generous support of the

John Templeton Foundation
Compassion in Claremont, CA. He is the author of Practicing Compassion; The God of Shattered Glass, A Novel, and of Finding God in the Graffiti: Empowering Teenagers through Stories which explores the role of the narrative arts in the spiritual formation of marginalized and abused youth and children. The Rev. Dr. Carter is Assistant Professor at the University of San Diego and teaches courses in Christian theology and ethics, Black and Womanist theology, and Christianity and environmental justice. Mr. Schoen is a doctoral candidate in Practical Theology with a concentration in Spiritual Formation at Claremont School of Theology.

Dr. Frank Rogers, Rev. Dr. Christopher Carter, and Mr. Seth Schoen will deliver a lecture entitled, Compassion-Based Approaches for Facilitating Difficult Conversations about Race and Racial Identity. In this lecture, they will describe the good life as both grounded empowerment in one’s racial identity, and relationships across racial identities of mutual respect, understanding, and commitment to a world where flourishing is not denied anyone by virtue of race. This lecture will introduce practices that are designed to facilitate compassion-based approaches to difficult conversations around race. Dr. Frank Rogers is a Professor at Claremont School of Theology. He is Co-Director and Founder of the Center for Engaged

Dr. David Anderson Hooker, Dr. Itihare Toure and Dr. Elizabeth Corrie will deliver a lecture entitled, Eight bowls, Four weeks, One RADICL World. The presenters will argue that peace, reconciliation, and, by extension, joy and the good life are communal achievements and not individual pursuits or possessions. Dr. Hooker is professor of the practice of conflict transformation and peacebuilding at the University of Notre Dame’s Keough School of Global Affairs. Dr. Toure currently works with the Interdenominational Theological Center as faculty in the Master of Arts Christian Education degree program. Dr. Corrie is associate professor in the practice of youth education and peacebuilding and director of the Youth Theological Initiative at Candler School of Theology.

Dr. David Anderson Hooker, Dr. Itihare Toure & Dr. Elizabeth Corrie on PEACE-MAKING & RECONCILIATION
University of Notre Dame; Interdenominational Theological Center; Candler School of Theology

Dr. David Anderson Hooker, Dr. Itihare Toure and Dr. Elizabeth Corrie will deliver a lecture entitled, Eight bowls, Four weeks, One RADICL World. The presenters will argue that peace, reconciliation, and, by extension, joy and the good life are communal achievements and not individual pursuits or possessions. Dr. Hooker is professor of the practice of conflict transformation and peacebuilding at the University of Notre Dame’s Keough School of Global Affairs. Dr. Toure currently works with the Interdenominational Theological Center as faculty in the Master of Arts Christian Education degree program. Dr. Corrie is associate professor in the practice of youth education and peacebuilding and director of the Youth Theological Initiative at Candler School of Theology.